Imagining, Living and Telling the Faith Story.

WOOD LAKE IS THE STORY COMPANY.

It has told:

- The story of the seasons of the earth, the people of God, and the place and purpose of faith in the world
- The story of the faith journey, from birth to death
- The story of Jesus and the churches that carry his message.

Wood Lake has been telling stories for more than 35 years. During that time, it has given form and substance to the words, songs, pictures and ideas of hundreds of storytellers.

Those stories have taken a multitude of forms – parables, poems, drawings, prayers, epiphanies, songs, books, paintings, hymns, curricula – all driven by a common mission of serving those on the faith journey.

Change. It's inevitable. But, wow, 2020 was tough. Making decisions about whether to stay open or close, how to best protect our health, what are the regulations this week, and how do we best serve? And then the disruptions in society that aren't even pandemic-related, the polarization in politics, and the differences in how we react in these unprecedented times.

At Wood Lake, we are committed to the safety and health of our employees, customers, and those who use our products. We are diligently working to help adapt our resources to help you do the same. And we are consistently working to ensure that we remain committed to racial and social justice.

We hope and pray that the coming years will be healthier, fairer and easier for us all.

Our church has enjoyed using the Seasons of the Spirit, as it is simple to follow, and use. The different choices of activities is also a good thing. – Pastor Esther Russell-

Hughes, First Presbyterian Church,
Mercedes, TX

When you buy Seasons of the Spirit resources you receive 52 weeks of material based on the Revised Common Lectionary (RCL).

Seasons of the Spirit celebrates the Season of Creation during the first four weeks of September

(Sep 5–Sep 26). Resources for the Season of Creation are based on scripture texts from the three-year Season of Creation cycle of readings.

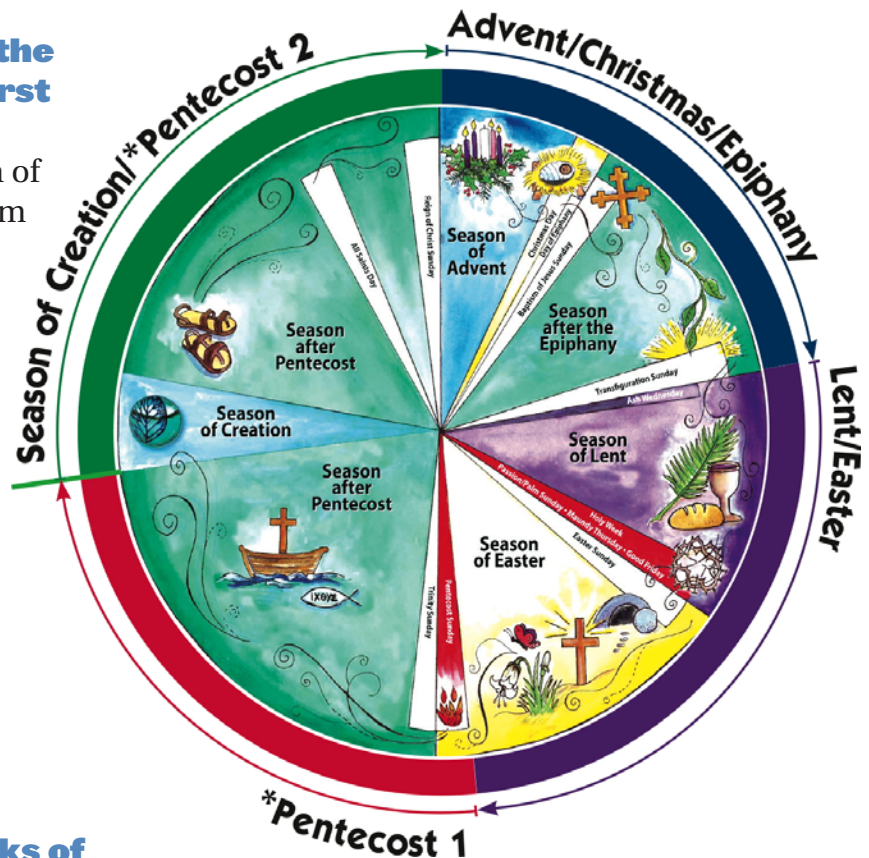

The Season of Creation

The readings for the Season of Creation invite congregations to join with all members of Earth's community to "celebrate Earth as a sacred planet filled with God's vibrant presence" (from Season of Creation charter). In 2021, the four Sundays in the Season of Creation focus on Earth Humanity, Sky, and Mountain.

Revised Common Lectionary resources for the first four weeks of September

Seasons of the Spirit also provides RCL resources for the first four weeks in September. These resources follow the SeasonsFUSION format, and weekly session flow. Suggestions are provided to help SeasonsENCORE users adapt the materials to the needs of their particular group(s).

These alternative RCL resources for September are available online only and can be accessed by any Seasons Leader using PRINT, DISK, or WEB delivery. Instructions for how to access the online RCL materials are included in the Season of Creation PRINT resources, and are automatically included with the DISK and WEB resources.

ADULT

Adults enter Bible study from a variety of backgrounds and beliefs. Sessions invite adults to deepen their spirituality and explore their faith through activities and articles that encourage a rich engagement with all four of the weekly lectionary readings. Art images, contemporary writings, and consideration of current issues offer meaningful ways to link faith and life.

The SeasonsENCORE Adult is a great resource for your next study group!

AGES 15-18

This resource promotes the development of leadership skills and encourages young people to serve in the local and global ministries of the church. A "Digging Deeper" section offers groups that enjoy discussion a chance to explore some themes in greater depth. Leaders will find the Ages 15-18 resource perfect for mid-week gatherings, retreats, worship leadership, and outdoor ministry programs.

AGES 12-14

Young teens enjoy self-directed learning. Friendships are important to them and they are beginning to explore a variety of viewpoints within their community and the world. The weekly resources provide opportunities to actively explore the Bible and encourage the development of communication skills. Varied activities meet the needs of different learning styles, and service projects introduce ways to connect with the church and the community.

AGES 9-11

These children enjoy making new friends and typically have the confidence to work in groups. The weekly resources encourage them to use their imaginations and life experiences as they develop biblical knowledge, ask questions, and explore the faith traditions of others. Group projects introduce them to issues of justice and fairness.

AGES 6-8

Weekly resources begin to address the more abstract thinking skills of children in the early grades of school. Leaders will find easy-to-use dramas, stories, and activities that connect with real life and the eager minds of this enthusiastic group. Spiritual development is nurtured through ritual and encouraging relationships with peers and adults.

The SeasonsENCORE Ages 6-8 Poster Set includes special Story Props posters exclusive to this age group for each quarter.

AGES 3-5

Children in this age range learn through hands-on activities and enjoy routines and rituals. Their developing motor skills are encouraged in the sessions with songs, fingerplays, group activities, and simple craft projects. The weekly material uses interactive storytelling, puppets, drama, and art images to explore Bible stories.

For each season, the Ages 3-5 Poster Set also includes special Storytelling Resource posters exclusive to this age group. And, we provide a free online Age 3 Supplement, for those leaders with a group of mostly 3-year-olds!

MULTIAGE

The SeasonsENCORE Multiage resource is uniquely designed to meet the needs of a leader with a single group of up to 15 children between the ages of 5 and 12. The Multiage resource offers different age-appropriate options for engaging with the biblical stories and provides additional reproducible resource sheets. The Respond section includes "activity zones" that address different ages, interests, learning styles, and abilities. For example, children can choose between an Art zone, Music zone, Outreach zone, or Quiet zone.

This group will also experience storytelling scripts, self-directed learning, and relationships with children of different ages as they create community, sharing time and space each week.

No wasted paper – download only what you need from the website. The activity sheets are reproducible for the number of children or participants on any Sunday.

Ongoing ideas & support – register for the free email “Tip of the Week,” short messages that give you extra ideas for connecting the materials to current events.

We have been really enjoying using this curriculum! The talk shows in the junior lessons, one year during Lent, were an awesome way to get our kids engaged.

BIBLE STUDIES for Progressive Christians by Donald Schmidt

Marcus Borg once said we should take the Bible seriously, but not literally. Wood Lake Publishing's series of Bible study guides seeks to do just that.

It digs behind the layers of tradition and instead opens the scriptures in a way that invites us to determine our own understanding. What can faith stories written millennia ago tell us about how to live today? How is God's call for justice relevant in an age of computers, global warming, and pandemics? How can we find simple truths in these ancient texts?

These guides are perfect for individual and group use. Take time by yourself or join with others in a formal or informal study and you will find yourself immersed in wondrous story, freed from any sense that "this is what you must believe" and able to form or develop your own interpretation of texts that are still relevant and vital for today's living.
